

The kind of troops Japan has ready for service in Siberia. The well set up, highly trained cavalrymen shown in the picture give a good idea of the quality of the Japanese army. From a recent photograph just received in this country.

Copyright Adachi.

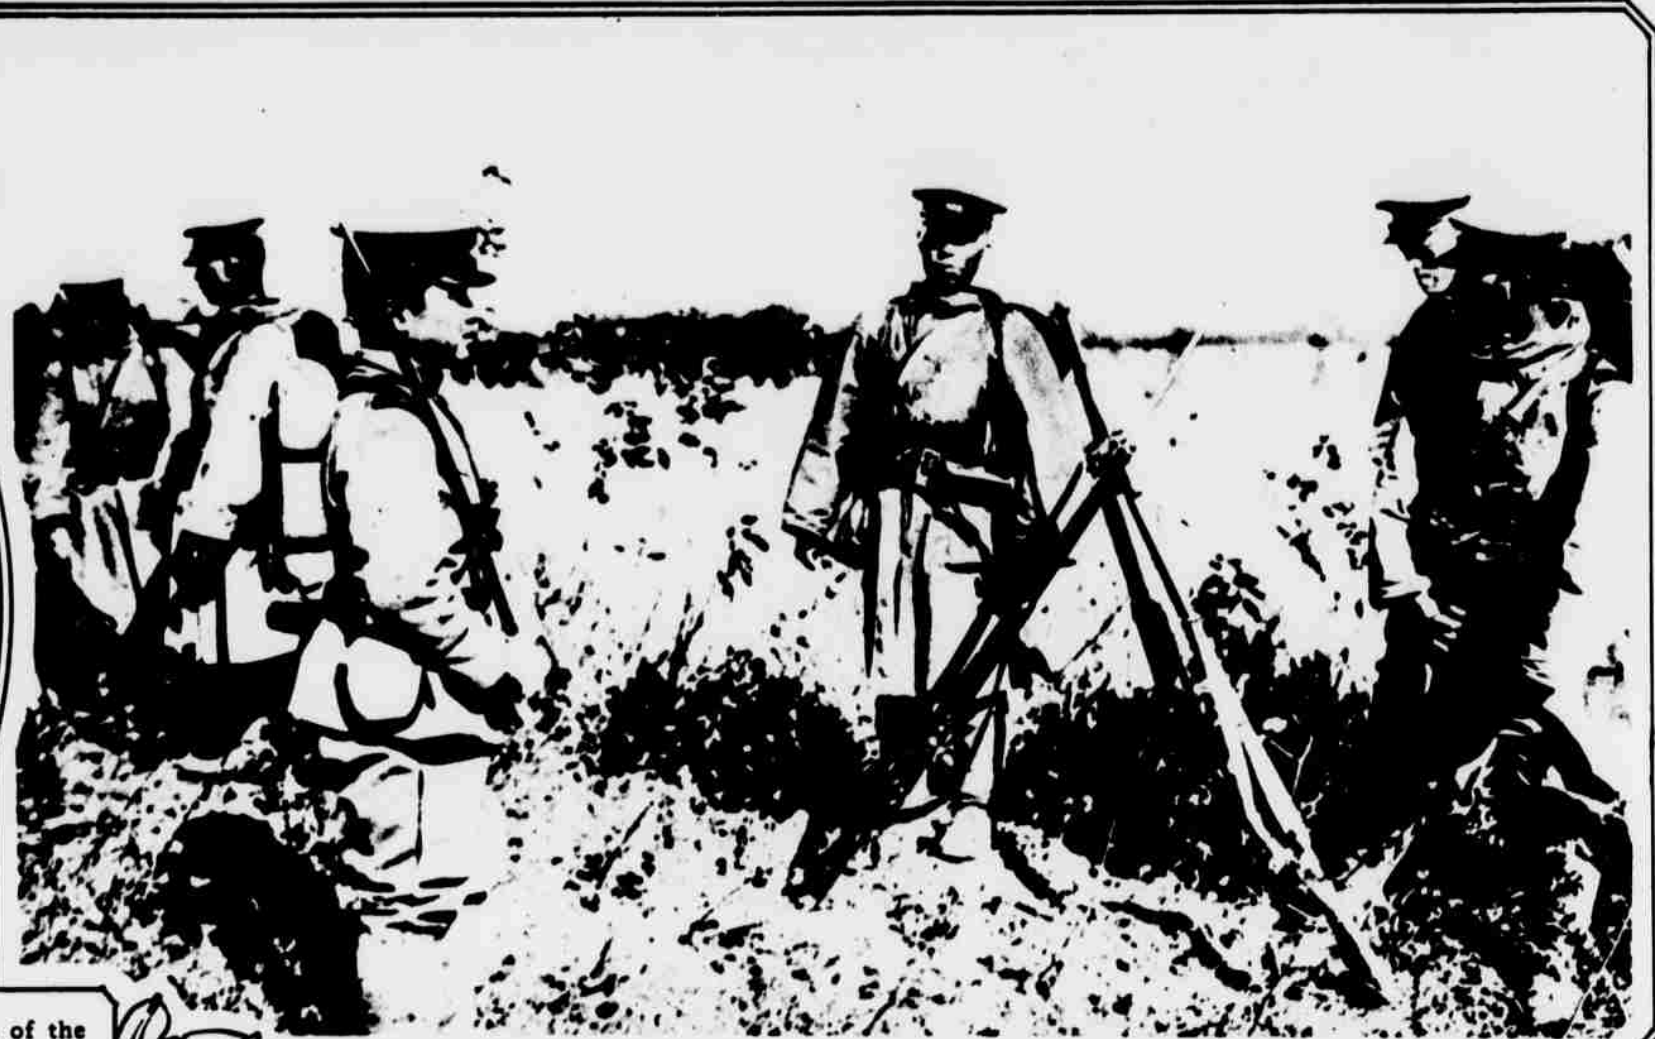

Latest portrait of Gen. Akiyama, to whom Japan looks for the successful direction of military operations in Siberia. The photograph was taken during the recent grand manoeuvres, when Gen. Akiyama commanded the army of the north.

Copyright Adachi.

Gen. Otani, one of the commanding officers of the expeditionary army which Japan has organized for service in Siberia.

Copyright Adachi.

The young officer in the foreground at the left of the photograph is Prince Li of Korea. He is receiving his military training in the Imperial Guard Division of the Japanese army.

Copyright Adachi.

THERE ARE SOME MITIGATIONS TO THE RIGORS OF MILITARY TRAINING AT CAMP DIX, WRIGHTSTOWN, N. J., AMONG THEM "THE SUNDAY SUN," AS WOULD APPEAR FROM THE PLEASSED EXPRESSIONS ON THE FACES OF THESE READERS.

Copyright Underwood & Underwood, N. Y.